

Fleming College

Location

Peterborough Campus

Peterborough, Ontario

Lindsay Campus

Lindsay, Ontario

By the Numbers

Enrollment Full Time 6,200

Enrollment Part-Time 10,000

City Population 75,000

College Founded in 1967

Area of Study

- Business Management
- Art and Design
- Environmental and Natural Resource Sciences
- Engineering and Technology
- Trades and Technology
- Health and Wellness

Fleming College of Applied Arts and Technology, located in the heart of the Kawarthas, was named for famous Canadian inventor and engineer Sir Sandford Fleming.

At Fleming, students value the hands-on learning they receive, which combines theory and practice. Students have access to Fleming's experienced faculty and enjoy the benefits of a supportive and challenging learning environment.

THE BEST STUDENT EXPERIENCE

- The third highest overall student satisfaction rate in the province with 82.7 per cent of apprenticeship students very satisfied with their overall experience at Fleming.
- 91.3 per cent of apprenticeship students at Fleming felt the program was giving them the knowledge and skills that would be useful for their future career.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FEES

- Diploma: $16,000 - $20,000

Basic Requirements for Admission:

- Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD) or equivalent
- Meet additional prerequisite requirements for some programs
- IELTS Academic 6.0

<https://flemingcollege.ca/>

Acceptance to Fleming College for Toronto eSchool Students:

1. Recognize the academic preparation provided by Toronto eSchool by allowing conditional admission to Diploma/Degree programs at Fleming on the basis of mid-term results .
2. Eng4U/Eng4C requirement or complete English Assessment by Fleming College.
3. Exempt IELTS/ TOFEL with ENG4U/ENG4C